Benefits Counseling (WIPA*) Overview

Presenter: Jenni Kistler, WIPA Program Manager, Goodwill Keystone Area

Does working mean you lose your benefits?

- ◆ What it is
- ◆ Who needs it
- ◆ When do you need it
- ◆ How do you track and report your income

Work Incentives Planning and Assistance is a service designed to give people with disabilities information on making a successful transition to working and the effect of working on benefits.

Where: The Arc's new office 116 W Airport Rd Suite A Lititz PA

When: Monday February 19 at 6 p.m.

RSVP: 717-394-5251 or info@thearcoflancasterco.org

We will be trying out a new feature that comes with our new office web conferencing! If you are interested in joining by phone instead of attending in person call or email Maureen Westcott mwestcott@thearcoflancasterco.org 717-394-5251 for details on how to call in

These sessions are an informal way to meet with others to ask questions, share concerns or experiences about the services and supports available to individuals with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities and their families.

Community Education Sessions are open to everyone.
