Guardianship In Pennsylvania

Presented By

DISABILITY RIGHTS
PENNSYLVANIA

“Guardianship in Pennsylvania” will provide self-advocates, family members, and professionals with information about:

- Substitute and supported decision-making for people with disabilities
- What is meant by “consent” and “capacity to make decisions”
- Whether guardianship is necessary
- What alternatives to guardianship exist
- The legal process to obtain guardianship, including emergency guardianship
- The types and scopes of guardians
- The powers and duties of guardians and limits on their authority

The training will also give participants the opportunity to ask questions of DRP attorneys concerning these important issues.

Wednesday August 3, 1pm and 6pm
